Lac La Biche

Mrs. Dorothy Lloyd, Alberta Gov. Telephone agent at Lac la Biche, accompanied by her three day operators, Mrs. C. Wolstenholm, Mrs. P. Calvert and Mrs. Louise Ray motored to Athabasca Sept. 8, to witness the cutover for dial system. The change over took place at 12:05 a.m., and was witnessed by operators and officials from Edmonton and other points.

A delicious lunch was served by the Athabasca A.G.T. staff.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Williams have as their guests, their eldest son Rod and wife and two children Janice and Jimmie. Rod, who is in the Royal Canadian Navy, and his family have been stationed at Churchill, Man. They travelled by train to The Pas, and then motored to his home here. After a month's holiday, they will motor to Ottawa where they will be stationed.

Mrs. Harvey Marchildon is a patient in the General Hospital, Edmonton.

Young people from Lac la Biche attending Alberta College in Edmonton include, Anneta Senetza, Betty Williams, Joe Cunningham Orville Franchuk.

Alma Fayad has enrolled at McTavish Business College Edmonton.

Recent word from Ernie Shanks who is visiting his mother in Germany states that he had a very pleasant trip over by boat, taking about ten days on the water. He enjoyed sightseeing in Scotland, England and Holland.

Keith Janowsky of Dawson Creek has replaced Earl Christensen, as manager of Banister Construction Co., here, and will be taking care of the Town's gas system. His family will arrive shortly and will reside in the former Forestry building on Peace Avenue.

Blinker lights have now been installed at the railway crossing on the St. Paul highway on the south side of town. This is a much needed improvement and will no doubt eliminate many accidents. Parents of school children are especially grateful for the warning lights, since so many of the school buses use this crossing twice a day.

Holiday Marks Completion Of Two Major Developments

A civic holiday to mark the completion of two major developments in the town was held on Sept. 17. Highlight of the celebration was the banquet in the Memorial Hall attended by some 175 local townspeople, with Hon. A. J. Hooke and Hon. A. R. Patrick as guest speakers.

F. W. McMillan, principal of Dr. Swift High School, as toastmaster introduced Mayor Maccagno, who spoke briefly on his favorite subject, the growth of Lac la Biche since its incorporation in 1951.

In describing a small town, Mayor Maccagno quoted someone as saying, "A small town is a place where everyone knows what his neighbor is doing, but they read the local newspaper to see if they have been caught."

Mr. Maccagno referred to the phenominal progress of the town in the past 11 years and thanked the government on behalf of the town for the improvements, including the sidewalk expansion program and the improvements to the curling rink and skating rink.

He said he would be expecting a visit from these government officials again in the not too distant future, "when we cut the ribbons for some of the other developments awaiting to be completed."

Mr. H. Lobay, president of the chamber of commerce, in mentioning the need of better roads, had the feeling of the gathering behind him when he pointed out that "once we get a better road, Lac la Biche will become the resort town of the north."

Mr. Lobay gave Mr. Hooke credit for the provincial building, which is such an asset to the town.

Mr. Lobay said that the provincial building, which was erected in Lac la Biche when Hon. Mr. Hooke was minister of public works, was greatly appreciated and was a real asset to the town.

Hon. Russell Patrick, provincial secretary and minister of industry and development, described a tour the ministers had enjoyed earlier in the day with Mayor Maccagno and other town officials when they saw the new 10-room High school, the golf course, Big Island, the old fort and the mission.

Dribnenki And Rizzoli Are Awarded Tenders For Gravel

LAC LA BICHE—Councillors McMillan, Vincent, Wolstenholme, Bouvier and Badry, Mayor Maccagno and Secretary Creighton were present for the September 11 meeting of Lac La Biche town council which lasted till 1:45 a.m.

Tenders for the supply of gravel for streets were opened and considered. Successful tenderers were John Dribnenki, who will supply 500 yards of gravel from the Cadieux pit at $1 per yard, and Felix Rizzoli, who will supply 500 yards from the Tkachuk pit at $1.65 per yard.

Tenders for trenching and backfilling for sewer and water extensions were also considered and, from three bids including one from Bert Construction of Smoky Lake and George Langevin of Lac La Biche, the bid of Hamilton Construction Co. was successful at 95c per lineal foot. The other bids were each for $1 per lineal foot.

A. Van Dyke, of Street Poster Advertising was present to discuss an agreement for installation of cabinets on street corners for disposition of waste paper and trash. The company supplies the cabinets to keep them clean and emptied. All advertising is to be local. Residents will be encouraged to use the cabinets instead of throwing scraps of paper on the streets and sidewalks.

Approval was given for the opening of a beauty parlor in a location on Nanton Street.

F. D. Creighton was appointed returning officer for the forthcoming town elections which will be held October 17 in the Library room of the town hall. Nomination day will be September 26.

Authority was given for the purchase of a number of traffic signs to be added to those throughout the town. One of the most important needs is in the area of the new Dr. Swift school which opened with the beginning of the fall term.

A building permit was approved for a new dwelling estimated to cost $4,000 and two permits were approved for private garages totalling $1,450.

A by-law to authorize the purchase of water meters and additional valves and hydrants for the town's water distribution system is estimated at $8,500. No further action will be taken until the by-law given first reading. The cost involved receives the approval of the local authorities board, after which the proprietary electors will be given the opportunity to express their views at a plebiscite.

As has become quite the custom in Lac La Biche, a goodly number of ratepayers was present at the meeting to see their mayor and council in action.

Valedictorian Richard Hayduk Wins Scholarships And Students' Award

The largest class of graduands in the history of the Dr. Swift High School was honored at a banquet and graduation exercises in the Memorial Hall, Saturday, Sept. 8. Using the "evergreen theme" the students, under the convenorship of Miles Graham, had tastefully decorated the hall in green and white and the girls in their beautiful white gowns and the boys in dark suits made a striking picture for the momentous evening.

Principal F. W. McMillan was toastmaster for the occasion and guest speaker was E. Torgunrud, superintendent of schools.

The toast to the graduates was proposed by Milton Maskalyk, president of the students' union. Betty Williams gave the reply. Olga Mischuk proposed the toast to the teachers, with H. Senetza, vice-principal responding. The toast to the parents was given by Zorina Zalusky and Mrs. J. Cunningham replied with an inspiring word to the graduands.

Class histories were read by Cecile Meardi, Claire Johanson, Irene Sachko and oDnald Stubberfield.

Valedictorian for the Grade 12 class was Richard Hayduk. Following the speeches Richard, who had achieved the highest marks in the departmental exams, was presented with a $25 cheque from the students' union, with Milton Maskalyk making the presentation and with the two separate scholarships awarded each year by the ATA to the student acquiring the highest marks in mathematics and science and in social studies and language. These awards of $50 each were presented to Richard by E. Makowichuk, president of the local ATA.

After a short intermission the graduands and their escorts assembled for the grand march, after which they marched to the platform where diplomas were presented as parents and friends shot pictures of the happy occasion.

In speaking to the graduands, who were leaving the protected atmosphere of the home to go out to make their way in the world, Mr. Torgunrud told them they would find themselves in working situations which have formal organizations, informal groups and individuals.

He said "You must find your place, roll up your sleeves and return the service which God demands in return for the life He has given you."

In toasting the graduands at the high school graduation, Milton Maskalyk, president of the Lac La Biche Students' Union, said "Mr. Toastmaster, Graduates, Parents, Ladies and Gentlemen: Before toasting the future of the graduates, I wish to say a few words on behalf of the students of Dr. Swift High. As president and representative of the Students' Union, I wish to commend the graduates on the co-operation and diligence that they have displayed toward the betterment of a smooth-running student body. Their capabilities have challenged us to undertake our duties more conscientiously so that we, too, may follow them to greater education. We are confident, graduates, if you pursue your new endeavors with the same spirit of accomplishment that you have during your days at Dr. Swift High, all your goals will be realized. May Dame Fortune ever smile on you; But never her daughter—Miss Fortune.

The class histories, always enjoyed by graduates and parents alike, were as follows:

Claire Johanson . . .
Claire was the girl who always knew
Just what she wanted and what she would do
Because she worked so diligently
She always had her French done efficiently.
Tops in drama, and as secretary too,
Her goal is now set, stable and true.

Emilia Dubrowny . . .
Across the deep blue sea,
Came Emilia when she was only three.
At Noral they homesteaded in a little log cabin
And for eight long years here her battles did win.
Grade eight and nine at Caslan she spent
Then off to Lac La Biche High she went.
One day to Emilia's fright
Her dear candies split into sight
A school rule she had mischieviously broken
And Mr. Senetza three words had spoken.
At McTavish College on the fourth of September
The day of her entry, she will always remember.
Rose Letourneau . . .
Mademoiselle Rose often shows her French charm,
But sometimes gets angry and causes alarm—
Then everyone scatters to left and to right
Until there is nobody left in sight.

However her memory in Social was strong,
She proved that it pays to work hard and long.
She has chosen commercial—soon we shall see
Rose in an office, working busily.

Don Caron . . .
In 1959 from Craigend school
Came Don Caron, who is five foot two.
His studies in grade ten began to lag
To finish Grade XII was a long, long drag.
Now he is as happy as can be
Since school is over and he is free.
But soon in Calgary he shall be
Learning a trade to earn a salary.

Grace Stratichuk . . .
In a three room school, Grace did start
To take her studies much to heart.
In scholastic studies aachievement her singing progressed
And Sister Mary classed her the best
When she moved to East Glen she had loads of fun
But soon missed her friends in the old Auditorium.
Now once more she has gone, left us her friends
All good things, it seems, must come to an end.

Paul Torresan . . .
Our young Italian was so aloof
His indifference caused teachers to hit the roof.
His assignments he frequently let go,
Felt his duty to attend every John Deere show.
Time Paul would waste
And only make haste
When everyone for his sandwiches raced.
But he has ability, which if he would show,
It would be hard to predict how far he would go.

Joan Smith . . .
A blond little lass of English descent,

Mineral Tax Of Eight Mills Is To Be Levied On Assessed Value

The Alberta Cabinet has passed an order-in-council setting the mineral tax for 1962 at eight mills on the dollar, which is to be levied on the assessed value of all principal minerals.

The tax applies to freehold minerals in areas where minerals are produced. About 25 per cent of the minerals in the province are freehold property.

The assessment amounts to one and a half times last year's production in the case of an oil well. In the case of natural gas, it is 12 cents per thousand cubic feet times the previous year's production, and in the case of coal, 40 cents a ton times last year's production.

The tax is expected to bring the province- one-million dollars this year.

F. J. Bigg, MP, Announces Federal Loan To Assist In Construction

OTTAWA — F. J. Bigg, MP for Athabasca, said recently that he had been informed by the Honorable E. Davie Fulton, minister responsible for the operations of Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation, the federal housing agency, of the approval of a federal government loan of $21,400 to the town of Elk Point to assist in the construction of a sewage treatment project.

Made under Part VI-B of the National Housing Act, the loan is for a term of 25 years with interest at 5⅛ per cent per annum. The loan is based on an estimated cost of $32,-100.

The town of Elk Point, located approximately 112 miles northeast of Edmonton, has sewage collection but sanitary wastes are discharging into a nearby creek, creating pollution. The town proposes the construction of sewage treatment facilities and the NHA loan will assist in the construction of 2,850 feet of six-inch pressure pipe, a stabilization pond consisting of two anaerobic and two aerobic cells.

Under Part VI-B of the National Housing Act, Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation may make a loan to a municipality or to a municipal sewerage corporation for the purpose of assisting in the construction or expansion of a sewage treatment project. A project must be part of an overall plan for the elimination or prevention of water and soil pollution.

For work completed on or before March 31, 1963, CMHC may forgive repayment of 25 per cent of the principal amount of the NHA loan and 25 per cent of the interest that has accrued in respect to the loan as of the date of completion of the project.

ACT Search For Talent Ready For 16th Season

Competition in the 16th annual Search for Talent conducted jointly by the Associated Canadian Travellers and The Sunwapta Broadcasting Company has been expanded into four divisions, George Harasim, director of Search for Talent for the Travellers announced recently.

Search for Talent is conducted throughout the north-central portion of Alberta by holding weekly shows under sponsorship of local organizations in the communities visited. Proceeds from the shows go to the Northern Alberta Crippled Children's Fund, which provides direct financial assistance for medical, hospital and surgical work for needy crippled children in the area.

First show is scheduled for Wildwood on Saturday, October 20. One week later the Talent Crew will visit Lac la Biche, followed by Drayton Valley on November 3 and Willingdon November 10. The Elks Lodge will sponsor the Wildwood show; the the Legion Ladies' Auxiliary are sponsors at Drayton Valley and Lac la Biche and the Fish and Game Association at Willingdon.

Decision to establish four distinct competitions was reached after conducting an experiment in this direction during the last several shows last spring. It proved so successful that the Travellers decided to divide the talent into four divisions.

The Sunwapta Competition will feature contestants performing individually and competing for the Sunwapta Scholarship which will entitle the winner to a course at the Banff School of Fine Arts.

The showmanship competition will include group performers as well as individuals with a flare for showmanship. Duets, trios, quartettes, folk dancers, orchestras, tumblers etc., will fall into this category and will compete for the Northwestern Utilities trophies.

The Country and Western Competition will feature artists in this field who prefer not to join either of the two previous categories. Fourth competition is the Junior Division with contestants between the ages of eight and 12 inclusive.

All competitions will provide trophies for first place winners and shields for second place winners, with additional awards at the semi-finals and finals, Mr. Harasim stated.

In announcing the four competitions Mr. Harasim pointed out that the scope of the talent has now been broadened to include all types of entertainment, giving all competitors the same opportunity to win at all levels.

Once again the weekly winners will meet in two regional semi-finals in April culminating in a final show on the last Saturday in April, 1963.

Save Your Grain, Control Your Weeds

Field Supervisor for the High Prairie ASB, Mr. Rudolph Goettel, agreeing with W. Lobay, Alberta's Supervisor of Soils and Weed Control, says by covering your truck with a tarpaulin you will not only be playing your part in the preventing the spread of noxious weeds, but you will also be saving substanial grain losses.

Studies done on truck loads of grain have shown that losses always occur in open trucks. In one instance, 24 bushels of No. 1 feed oats were lost from a truck with a level load travelling into a 10-mile-an-hour headwind for a distance of 10 miles. Of course, there was also an appreciable number of weed seeds scattered along the route.

Regulations under the Alberta Noxious Weed Act state that no one can move or transport screenings unless they are securely confined in a tightly closed container during transit.

If you will use a tarpaulin, securely tied down, you will prevent needless grain losses and greatly assist your Agricultural Service Board in its weed control program. If the tarpaulin is not properly secured, it is worse than using an open truck, because the wind tunnel which is created scatters even more grain and weed seeds.

Shower Compliments Miss Marilyn Foran

HOLDEN — A miscellaneous shower was held in the United Church basement in honor of Miss Marilyn Foran on Friday evening of last week, with about 40 ladies attending.

Mrs. Elizabeth Campbell pinned the corsages on Miss Foran and her mother, Mrs. C. L. Foran, and also one of her attendants, Miss Jean Pan.

A contest was played during the evening. Mrs. Campbell then said a few words and presented Miss Foran with the lovely gifts. Miss Marion Micklich and Mrs. Marion Tkaczyk carried in the basket of gifts.

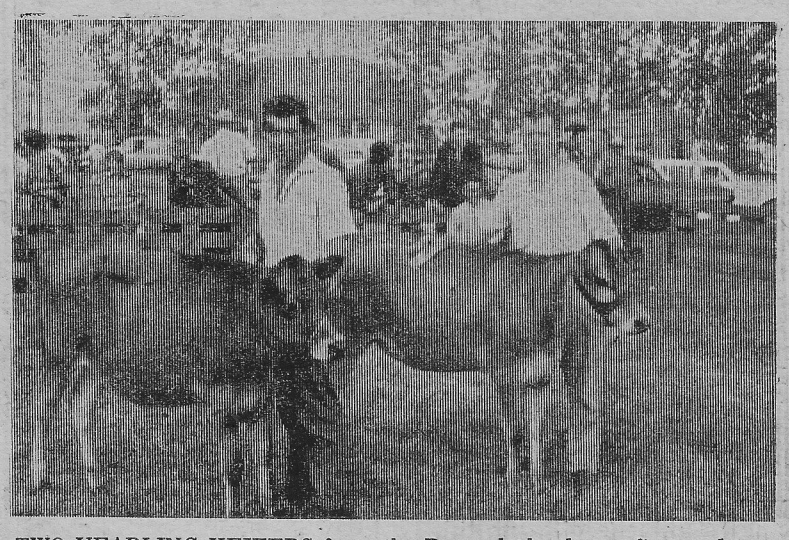
After everyone had viewed the gifts, Miss Foran thanked everyone. Lunch was served. Miss Foran's marriage to Robert Ratke of Edmonton will take place on Saturday, September 15, at 5 p.m., at the Redeemer Lutheran Church in Edmonton.

Martin Hendel Visits Fair In Seattle

HOLDEN — Martin Hendel recently went to Calgary, where he joined his son Ed, his daughter-in-law and his grandchildren, and from there they all went to visit his daughter, Mrs. J. (Pauline) Tiearney in Everett, Washington.

While in Everett, Martin had the opportunity to visit Seattle and see the World's Fair. The Century 21 is great, he thinks. Going up in the space needle has a tendency to make the stomach have to catch up later, but the science building explains the reasons for that. "Best of all," says Martin, "I think I will fix my kitchen up the way the GE people fixed theirs at the fair."

On their way back to Calgary, the Hendels spent some time visiting points of interest in the state of Washington, Oosoyos, Penticton, Vernon, Kelowna and the entire Okanagan. They returned via the Roger's Pass, Lake Louise, Radium Hot Springs and Banff.



TWO YEARLING HEIFERS from the Rosevale herd won first and second prizes at the Willingdon Fair. Bryan Rosnau and his brother, 19-year-old Neil, left, are shown exhibiting the champions.

District Deputy Governor Leroux Sentences New Kinsmen Executive

GRAND CENTRE — District Deputy Governor Roger Leroux, a member of this club, showed little mercy to the incoming executive on Saturday, September 8, when he sentenced the accused slate to a year of service to the club, despite the noble efforts of Kin John Salsman in his pleas for leniency. Prosecutor Max Weeger delivered his cases forcefully and Judge Leroux was decisive in meting out his sentences.

The installation of officers, carried out in court form, took place in the Grand Centre Anglican Hall and also included the placements of the Kinette Club executive, with a near full membership on hand.

Immediately after the supper, Past President Dale Spence introduced the numerous guests, and D. D. G. Roger presented the attendance awards. Topping the award winners was Bud Gruhlke who has now tallied a 400% attendance record. Next were Pete Hluss, Steve Bashuk and Dale Spence with 300%, followed by Dan Ewasiuk, George Werenka, George Axani, and Art Kightly who recorded 100%. D. D. G. Roger's 100% tab was presented to him by Past President Dale. George Werenka was acclaimed Kinsmen of the year for this club and also was presented with an award by the Deputy Governor.

Among the award-winning Kinettes were Joyce Bonneteau and Eileen Spence with 300% records, Fran Burgess with 200% and Doris Grulke Ann Werenka, Gloria McFarlane and Laurette Ewasiuk with 100%.

Past secretary Art Kightly, who is being transferred to France, was given a going-away present. The Kinettes also presented Mrs. Kightly with a parting gift.

The minutes of the previous meeting had been read, new business dispensed with and Past-President Dale had made his stepping-down speech, so the occasion then took on its social aspects.

Rev. And Mrs. B. Wall Visit Saskatchewan

TWO HILLS — Rev. Ben A. Wall and family are visiting his parents in Saskatoon and also Mrs. Wall's parents at Luseland, Sask.

Waskatenau Bridge Will Form Link With South Area

A scene of much interest around Waskatenau is the river bank directly south of town where there is a work project in full swing. It is the site of the new bridge which is to cross the river at this point.

This will form a wonderful link with the country south of the river, as it is cut off from Waskatenau spring and fall when the river is thawing and when it is freezing.

Grand Centre Students Top List For The Third Consecutive Year

For the third consecutive year the grade nine students of Grand Centre School have proven to be the top grade nine students in the Bonnyville School Inspectorate which includes 12 large divisional schools and separate schools in Cold Lake and Bonnyville.

Top honors went to Miss Linda Fisher of Grand Centre who received an honors standing in every school subject and was the only honor student in the Inspectorate. At a later date she will be presented with a $50 scholarship from the Bonnyville School division.

In the inspectorate as a whole there were 235 grade 9 students who wrote the department examinations. Of this number 32 students, or 13.6%, attended Grand Centre School. As stated previously a Grand Centre student was the only honor student in the inspectorate. Of a total of 67 H's obtained in the six departmental examinations, 27 were received by Grand Centre students. Of a total of 180 D's (failing marks) in the Inspectorate only three were received by Grand Centre students. Of 20 failures in the inspectorate only one came from the Grand Centre School. Thus, in comparison with the inspectorate as a whole, Grand Centre students did extremely well in their examinations last June.

In the province as a whole, 85% of the grade 9 students passed, 10% failed and 5% were honor students. Compared with these figures, 94% of the Grand Centre students passed, 3% failed and 3% were honor students. Thus, the Grand Centre grade 9 students did better than the province as a whole.

The students of this class came from Grand Centre, Cherry Grove and Beaver Crossing. The teachers of this class were Mrs. Nyra Stangeland, Mrs. Mabel Humphries, and Mr. Daniel Ewasiuk.

Farewell Party Held To Honor Student Minister

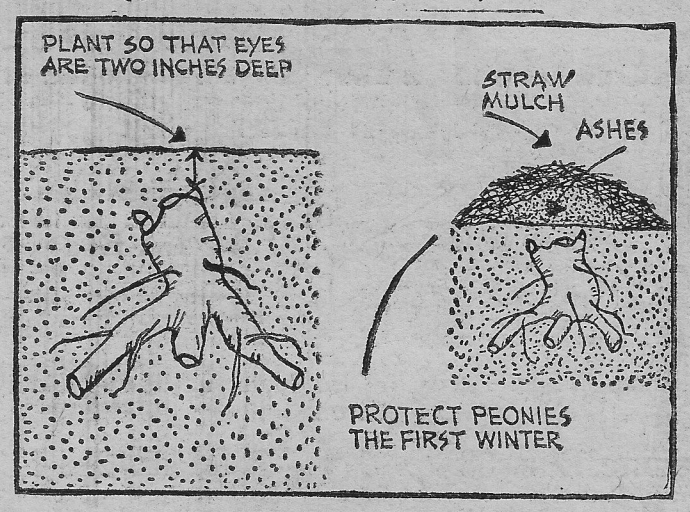
REDWATER — Following the evening service on Sunday, September 9, the congregation of Moore Memorial United Church met in the social rooms of the church to bid farewell to Mr. Robert Ball of Barrie, Ontario who has served the Redwater pastoral charge as student minister for the past five months.

During the evening Rev. Ray Reppard gave a short speech as a farewell tribute to Mr. Ball and Mr. Scottie Anderson spoke on behalf of the church board and presented Mr. Ball with a remembrance gift on behalf of the congregation.

Mr. Ball left Sept. 10 for his home in Barrie and from there he will proceed to Edinburgh, Scotland, where he will spend a year continuing in studies in Theology.

Prior to the social evening Mr. Ball delivered the sermon at the evening service.

Garden Graph



Plant Peonies This Fall

If you have been wanting peonies in your garden, now is the time to order them. Do not let it go until next spring. While they will be available next spring I am of the firm conviction that planting them in spring is risky. They are much more reliable when planted in mid-August, September or October.

Because peonies are planted for many years it is important to prepare the soil well for them. Dig a hole 18 inches deep, 12 inches wide. If the soil is heavy, incorporate peat moss, compost and leaf mould. If the PH of the soil is low, some ground agricultural limestone would help. A small quantity of fertilizer thoroughly mixed in the loose soil at the bottom of the hole may be applied, one low in nitrogen, such as 4-12-4 or 3-12-12.

As shown in the accompanying Garden-Graph, the depth to plant peony roots is two inches of soil over the eyes. However, unless the ground has been dug and well settled before planting, there is danger of the roots settling more than the soil with the result that next spring the eyes will be a couple inches too deep.

As shown, peonies require winter protection only the first year. Ashes, plus a two to three-inch mulch of straw, crushed corncobs or shredded bark, will keep the roots from heaving up out of the ground.

Valedictorian Richard Hayduk Wins Scholarships And Students Awards

For nine years to Hylo School she went.
Her sisters and brothers in math did excel
And Joan found it easy to do just as well.
The goal she has set is a nursing career,
And soon a new Florence Nightingale shall appear.

Zorina Zalewski . . .
When Zorina started school her very first year,
Her grades she knew she never need fear.
Entered Dr. Swift High in '59
And there for three years she did very fine.
A teacher we hear she wants to be
She'll succeed we know, just wait and see.

Nettie Feledichuk . . .
On September 19th a wail and a howl
Announced that Nettie was on the prowl
Ever since then the world had no peace.
For her fun loving pranks would never cease.
Nettie enjoys fun and laughter
And usually gets whatever she is after.
This fall we'll see Nettie off to College
For she tells us she wants to increase her knowledge.

Richard Hayduk . . .
On a cold dreary February day
Little Richard came our way
Little Richard grew and grew
'Til now he wears a size 12 shoe
In class Richard was always a brain
And thus we know he will always remain.

Joe Cunningham . . .
From Edmonton chubby little Joe came to us
And then all the little girls began to fuss.
And they soon grew very fond
Of his baby blue eyes and hair of blonde.
In studies Joe was neevr a whiz
He shuddered when a teacher mentioned a quiz.
Joe would do anything for a laugh
And often irked the teaching staff.
Like the time he playfully locked the door
On three girls who had gone to the basement floor.
He found it hard to see how attendance at class
Was a "must" if a fellow was going to pass.
But soon all the girls in Lac la Biche will be grieving
For the handsomest boy of all will be leaving.

Jim McCormick . . .
Jim came from Bellis to Lac la Biche Town,
For about twelve years past, we've seen him around.
As older he grew his interests did vary,
From sports to dancing and making all merry.
If his final marks were not too high,
We're sure that Jim can tell you why.
For instead of doing homework for next day's school,
He spent his evenings at Ernie's, shooting pool.
But in hockey he always did excel,
And this in the future, we know he'll do well.

Alma Fayad . . .
Alma is neither stout nor tall,
But she proves what we've always herd is true—
That good things come in packages small,
We're convinced from all that we've seen her do.
For Alma worked so very hard,
And sat up late to do her lessons right.
And now we rejoice at her reward,
She's with us to graduate here tonight.

Ted Meyer . . .
From Wandering River came a boy named 'Herc',
Who was fond of play but detested work.
But the subject of French was as easy as pie,
For a little French girl thought he was a rute little guy.

At Varsity Guest Weekend Herc then knew,
That being a lawyer was the thing to do.
Now a grade XII graduate Meyer retires,
From studying French to accusing liars.

Jim Bennett . . .
From Cremona, Alberta in '61,
Came a handsome young lad who was full of fun.
He stole the hearts of many girls,
For they thought he had such pretty curls.
Bach to graduation Jim has come
For a Grade XII diploma he has won.

William Diachuk . . .
Out of Craigend came a brain,
When William Diachuk came to train.
With education he could not part,
For any girl that was after his heart.
So now is a very happy occasion
For this is William's graduation.

Bob Henson . . .
Out of Noral in "59"
Came Bob Henson, and oh, what a time!
He came flying through town in his hot rod Ford,
And everyone looked and said "Good Lord".
Bob saw the handwriting on the wall
Just in time to get busy and hit the ball,
So Bob set to work and studied his book
And said, "I'll pass by hook or by crook".
Congratulations for passing, Bob

THE Homemaker

By B. M. McCUTCHEON. District Home Economist, Westlock

No matter what the weather, when your home freezer stops, there is bound to be trouble. How much trouble depends upon how much you know about handling the situation.

Heed these several steps to keep your food from spoiling.

—Keep the freezer closed.
—Move the food to a locker plant.
—Add dry ice if you can get it.
—Can the food if necessary.

In a closed, fully-locked freezer, food usually stays frozen about two days after the electricity goes off. With less than half a load, it may last a day.

B. McCutcheon

If you think it may take longer than a day or so to get your freezer back in shape, you might use your local locker plant. Wrap the food in plenty of newspapers and blankets, or use insulated boxes, then take the trip from freezer to locker as quickly as possible.

Dry ice is another possibility. The more dry ice you use, the longer the food will keep froze. Fifty pounds will keep the temperature down to 15 degrees F. for about 2 days in an average-size freezer. For added protection, cover the freezer with blankets or quilts it will help to put crumpled newspapers between the cabinet and the blankets.

If all of those fail you can always can the food.

Fruits, however, can be refrozen even though they thaw out. They may not be as tasty but a little fermentation will not make fruits dangerous to eat.

Be very careful about refreezing thawed meats and poultry. They become unsafe to eat as soon as they start to spoil. Do not refreeze vegetables, shellfish or cooked foods if they have thawed completely. Get rid of them. They may be dangerous.

One of the problems in decorating or redecorating a room is in choosing curtains. Much of a room's charm comes from attractive window treatments.

Certain points have to be kept in mind when choosing fabrics for your windows.

1. A room looks smaller when draperies or curtains contrast with the walls. It looks larger if there is little contrast between treatment and walls.

2. Full draperies in contrasting color break the length of a long wall.

3. Deep valances break the height of a room.

4. Lightweight, fine - textured, small patterned, or plain fabrics are in good proportion to small rooms.

5. Large rooms benefit from heavier materials, large patterns and colors that contrast with walls.

6. Rough - textured walls need heavy-textured materials, while smooth - surfaced and finer fabrics are more pleasing with smooth walls.

7. Too much pattern on walls and draperies makes the room seem smaller and may create confusion.

8. Enough plain surface is needed for rest enough pattern for interest.

9. For more information on window treatments, a pamphlet called "Curtains Going Up" is available from this office.

Funeral Rites For A. Piquette, Former Plamondon Postmaster

PLAMONDON — Funeral services were held at St. Isadore's Roman Catholic Church for Alcide Plamondon, former Plamondon postmaster, who passed away recently.

Mr. Piquette came here in 1914 by covered wagon. He brought his family here from St. Albert to take a position as manager of the Chevigney Brothers store. He was postmaster here for many years, and retired about 16 years ago. Following his return from a visit to his native Quebec he lived with a son, Roland, until five years ago, when he went to live with another son, Jean, at Morinville and later at Vimy.

Following Jean's death a year ago Mr. Piquette took up residence in the Youville Home, St. Albert, where he died.

Surviving are two sons and two daughters: Roland and Robert of Plamondon, Mrs. E. Houle of Hull, Que., and Mrs. John Tremblay, Edmonton; 22 grandchildren and 22 great-grandchildren.

Courtesy on the highways, by those driving automobiles, will reduce the death rate more than traffic regulations.
